

The Road to WHISPERING PINES CAMP

Franklinville, New York

LOCATION

Whispering Pines College Camp is in hilly, forested southwestern New York State. The camp lodges are on Raub Road, off NY Route 16, south of the Village of Franklinville and north of Ischua and Olean. It is about 65 miles from Buffalo (travel time from campus is about 90 minutes).

DIRECTIONS

- 🦌 To get there from Buffalo State, take the Scajaquada Expressway (198) to Route 33 East, and proceed to the NYS Thruway.
- 🦌 Travel west on the Thruway (toward Erie) to Route 400 (Exit 54), and then south on 400 until it becomes Route 16.
- 🦌 Continue on 16 through Holland, Delevan, Lime Lake, Machias (bear left at the blinking light to stay on Route 16), and Franklinville. Raub Road is a left turn about 5.5 miles from the Franklinville signal. Whispering Pines is a right turn about a mile-and-a-half up Raub.

For more information contact:
USG Whispering Pines Reservations
402 Campbell Student Union
1300 Elmwood Avenue
Buffalo, New York 14222
Phone (716) 878-6701
(9AM to 3PM)
.....

Complete
Whispering Pines Camp
info can be found at:
usg.buffalostate.edu
.....

Whispering Pines is funded by the United Students Government through the mandatory student activity fee.

NOTE: This map is not to scale.

Whispering Pines Camp

Camp Phones:
 Laug Lodge: 676-9978
 Alamo Lodge: 676-9998
 Camp Manager: 676-5104

ISHUA